OVERVIEW

Established in 1994, Davies Harrington Interior Design has developed some of Australia's most dynamic and workable interiors. An imaginative team combined with a highly disciplined approach to each project has earned Davies Harrington an enviable reputation within the industry.

From retail and residential through to hospitality and shopping centre design, Davies Harrington implements creative solutions based on the belief that client involvement is not simply an option; it is a creative essential.

PROCESS

With a careful and considered approach to each client's specific needs, Davies Harrington adheres to a design philosophy that is at all times sensitive, inclusive and consultative.

Davies Harrington's passionate pursuit of contemporary aesthetic and function allows their team to develop a culture of vibrant, spirited ideas - ideas that have found their expression in some of Australia's most beautiful and balanced interiors.

PARKVIEW HOTEL ST. KILDA ROAD, MELBOURNE

The View Hotel Group engaged Davies Harrington to design and oversee the refurbishment of 206 guest rooms, executive suites, function rooms and associated public areas.

The client brief required a timeless, high quality, elegant interior, at a realistic cost.

To achieve this outcome and express the View Hotel Group's unique image all aspects of the design from joinery to carpet were custom designed by Davies Harrington.

ORIGINAL DESIGNS

Davies Harrington understands that a great design requires all details to be well considered in order to achieve an individual yet appropriate solution.

KOOKAI AUSTRALIA / NEW ZEALAND

Davies Harrington designed the new Kookai store concept throughout Australia and New Zealand.

The design features laser cut ceiling panels, unique antique bronze cladding and feature walnut and lacquered fixtures.

In addition the Davies Harrington team project coordinated and managed the total fitout of each store.

BOX HILL RSL SUCCESSFUL PROPOSAL

By invitation, Davies Harrington presented the winning design for Box Hill RSL's upcoming alterations and additions.

This exciting project is scheduled to begin early in 2014.

HAWTHORN

Davies Harrington designed and project managed the successful completion of two, three level town houses. Our team completed all interior documentation and furnishings.
